Accountability Pairs Guide

Two men, one step each, one check-in every week.

My partner _____

How it works

1	Pair up at the Respond step. Each man names one next step and one accountability partner before the group prays.
2	Check in mid-week. Send a 30-second voice or text message, "How can I pray? What step did you take?"
3	Pray specifically. Pray for the request your partner gives you, by name, before the next gathering.
4	Report back. At the next gathering, share how your step went, wins and weights.

Ground rules

Grace + truth. Be honest and be kind. Neither one without the other.
Confidentiality. What your partner shares stays between you.
Show up. Reply to the check-in, even when the week went badly.
Act on the Word. Keep steps small and specific, so you can both tell whether it happened.

Group Covenant

Grace + truth. Confidentiality. Show up. Act on the Word.

As men in this group, we commit to one another and to God:

Grace + truth	We will tell each other the truth, and we will do it with grace.
Confidentiality	What is shared in this group stays in this group.
Show up	We will make this gathering a priority and be present when we are here.
Act on the Word	We will not just hear Scripture. We will take one step on what it says.

"Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says." — James 1:22

Facilitator One-Pager

Everything you need to lead any week.

Before

☐ Pray for each man by name.
☐ Choose the passage (see the 4-Week Reading Plan for the first month).
☐ Read it yourself at least twice. Note one thing it shows about God and one about us.
☐ Print the Meeting Agenda.

During (60–75 minutes)

3–5 min	Open: gratitude and prayer
10–15 min	Wins & weights: one of each, per man
5 min	Read: the passage aloud twice
15–20 min	Reflect: What does this reveal about God? About us?
10 min	Respond: one next step, one accountability partner
10 min	Pray: short, specific prayers

After

☐ Send the mid-week check-in: “How can I pray? What step did you take?”
☐ Confirm next week’s facilitator. Rotate so every man learns to lead.

Remember

You don’t need to be a Bible expert. Keep the Word central, ask good questions, and model obedience.
Keep it small. 3–8 men is ideal: big enough for energy, small enough for honesty.
Keep steps small and specific. “Pray more” is hard to check. “Read Romans 12 each morning before work” isn’t.
Keep momentum with the weekly rhythm, clear next steps, and mid-week check-ins.
