Facilitator One-Pager

Everything you need to lead any week.

Before

☐ Pray for each man by name.
☐ Choose the passage (see the 4-Week Reading Plan for the first month).
☐ Read it yourself at least twice. Note one thing it shows about God and one about us.
☐ Print the Meeting Agenda.

During (60–75 minutes)

3–5 min	Open: gratitude and prayer
10–15 min	Wins & weights: one of each, per man
5 min	Read: the passage aloud twice
15–20 min	Reflect: What does this reveal about God? About us?
10 min	Respond: one next step, one accountability partner
10 min	Pray: short, specific prayers

After

☐ Send the mid-week check-in: “How can I pray? What step did you take?”
☐ Confirm next week’s facilitator. Rotate so every man learns to lead.

Remember

You don’t need to be a Bible expert. Keep the Word central, ask good questions, and model obedience.
Keep it small. 3–8 men is ideal: big enough for energy, small enough for honesty.
Keep steps small and specific. “Pray more” is hard to check. “Read Romans 12 each morning before work” isn’t.
Keep momentum with the weekly rhythm, clear next steps, and mid-week check-ins.

“Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path.” — Psalm 119:105